

CHINLINK INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS LIMITED (HKSE Stock Code: 0997)

Chinlink has Entered into a MOU with KTPCL and Sinolink
Jointly Develop Cross-Border E-Commerce Business
To Anticipate the Huge Demand for Overseas Affordable Luxuries in the PRC

[17 June 2015 - Hong Kong] Chinlink International Holdings Limited (“Chinlink”, HKSE Stock Code: 0997) and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) is pleased to announced that, on 17 June 2015, the Group has successfully entered into a non-legally binding MOU with Kai Tak Cruise Plaza Limited (“KTCPL”) and Sinolink Limited (“Sinolink”) to collaboratively develop cross-border e-commerce business.

Under the MOU, the Group intends to subscribe for such number of new shares of KTCPL (which will represent 8% of the enlarged issued shares capital of KTCPL) at HK$20,000,000. (“Possible Subscription”) The Group and Sinolink will also form a Joint Venture to engage in the cross-border e-commerce business (“Joint Venture”). (“Possible Establishment of Joint Venture”) The issued share capital of the Joint Venture will be owned as to 55% by the Group and as to 45% by Sinolink. The Group will contribute HK$30,000,000 to the Joint Venture as initial working capital commitment. Upon completion of the Possible Subscription and the Possible Establishment of Joint Venture, KTCPL shall enter into a supply agreement with the Joint Venture for a term of not less than 10 years.

KTCPL is one of the three duty free license holders in Hong Kong, with legal rights to operate duty free and bonded warehouse at HK Cruise Plaza situated at the southern tip of the Kai Tak Cruise Terminal (the “Terminal”), supplying stocks to cruises, as well as importing and exporting duty free liquors and tobacco. KTCPL is also the exclusive retailer in the Terminal with two food and beverage outlets and a duty free shop of approximately 23,000 sq. ft. at the non-restricted area, providing full range of world famous brands of luxury products.

Mr. Siu Wai Yip, the Executive Director of Chinlink, said, “The Group has played a prosperous perspective towards e-commerce business, and continuously seeks the suitable business opportunities for expansions in multiple aspects. With favourable policies adoption on nurturing the cross-border e-commerce business by the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") government and high domestic consumers' demand for overseas affordable luxuries in the PRC, the Group expects the cross-border e-commerce will grow rapidly in the coming years."

The collaboration with KTCPL and Sinolink is an important step in developing the cross-border e-commerce. In addition, the collaboration can also enhance the Group's growth potential and expand our existing services and revenue base. More importantly, the official and reliable supply of import merchandises is expected to drive the bonded warehouse and regional distribution businesses of Chinlink · Worldport, as well as to provide a lucrative captive client base for developing consumer financing products, which can benefit both the logistics and finance businesses of the Group. Therefore, the Group is optimistic towards the outlook of the cross-border e-commerce and believes that the collaboration will bring the Group's business development to a new chapter.
